

1 Day workshops for adults

Following activities can be conducted only at the studio.

Address -Rijnburgstraat 74H ,1059 AX Amsterdam. Paid parking around the corner.

1) Mask Making.

Clay Mask have been an integral part of several cultures. They have been used for rituals, mystic blessings and ceremonies. They symbolize beauty, prosperity and in some cases even immortality.

During this session we make clay mask from one particular culture and explore the traditional designs. We learn easy techniques to model the clay.

For example, African culture. There are several styles and patterns that constitutes as African culture. We use these motifs to design our mask. We will imitate some shapes and styles from this culture.

At the same time, we also dabble into the origin of those styles and how the patterns evolved. To enhance our design we incorporate colored clay, textures and carvings to the mask.

The ceramic Mask made by the participants will be later baked and returned.

Duration – 2 hours.

All materials are included in the cost.

Cost – 55 euros /person. (Minimum 5 participants)

2) Kurinuki and wheel.

This workshop is designed for individuals who would like to try their hands on speckled special clay. It is a relaxed fun activity that can be done as a couple or as group.

It's a combination of hand building technique, few clay therapy exercises and hands on potter's wheels.

Highlights –

- Japanese technique of Kurinuki
- Making wheel objects.
- Meaningful interaction with clay

The purpose is to explore the versatility of clay and enjoy its uniqueness. Clay is calming, forgiving and above all expressive. Clay acts as perfect listener to our emotions.

We engage in the traditional Japanese style of hand building. Kurinuki cups are considered to be the most unique and personal expression of art in ceramic. Each piece is an extension of one's own emotion and state of mind.

The carving method is widely practiced in Japanese pottery. We also learn some traditional Japanese's motif and calligraphy on clay.

That's not all, while your tea cups are drying you move to yet another exciting activity.

Where you fiddle with clay on the potter's wheel and make the basic shapes of an earthen pot. You will actually be making tea cups in traditional Japanese method on wheel. Please Note: throwing on a wheel is a master skill, therefore what you make in the short period of time may not be technically perfect. Therefore, may not be baked.

Duration – 3 hours

All materials are included.

Cost –

100 /person (minimum 3 people)

85 euros /person (minimum 5 people on wards)

Everything you make is baked and gloss fired at a stoneware temperature, making the pieces

Microwave, oven and dishwasher proof.

3) Mugged.

This is a fun activity as a small group. (Most popular I MUST SAY) You decorate a mug of your choice with special ceramic colors. these mugs reflect the artist in you. If you think it's difficult, don't worry you will have plenty of reference and materials to get inspiration from. They could be painted in a theme-based design or freehand.

I will later coat them with transparent glaze and are Gloss Fired. Can be used in microwave and dishwasher.

Designing your own Mug is not all that you get to do. You gone get your hands dirty! play with clay on the potter's wheel. Its Messy, fun and amazingly satisfying. (Don't worry your aprons will protect your clothes) I will demonstrate and guide you through the process. You will be surprised how a lump of clay takes beautiful shape. Please not, not always what you make can be baked. Or else you are free to take the unbaked pieces.

Duration – 2 hours (2hours 30 mins if the number of participants exceed 8 people)
All materials are included

Cost –
65 /person (minimum 3 people)
60 euros /person (minimum 10 people onwards)

4) Platterful

In this activity we learn one of the oldest pottery painting techniques. Visually a very beautiful pattern on clay, incorporating concept of spacing, composing and monochrome painting style.

One of the most elegant forms of pottery, Sgraffito is a way of enhancing a clay piece simply by removing and adjust the negative space. Sounds complicated, well it's not. It's very relaxing and easy. And with the tools that I provide it is interesting and a delight to work. These articles are monochromatic color combination, you can choose from the 5 earthy colors that will be provided to you. Remember you will also be making the plate and the bowl in clay.

After you have completed the design, the pieces are baked and gloss fired, Making them dishwasher, oven and microwave safe.
